

The concentration of media ownership is a threat to the free flow of ideas and opinions necessary for democracy to function. I urge the FCC to maintain regulations that limit ownership of media outlets.